REV. JOHN F. O'CONNOR
Principal

As we send forth from the "Halls of Alleman" our seniors of the Class of 1966, we pause to reflect on the kind of world they are entering. In very many ways it is different from the world into which they were born. By the time they entered high school, their country was being set on a new course by John F. Kennedy, and their church was entering a new era ushered in by Pope John's Ecumenical Council. The ideals and attitudes of these two men will shape the world of the future.

In every aspect of life change and adaption has become necessary for survival. The discovery of poverty in the midst of plenty, the facing up to the problems of pluralism in race and religion here and around the world, the perennial quest for peace within and without the United Nations, the conquest of space both achieved and hoped for, the proliferation of human knowledge, the blessings and difficulties introduced into society by computers, automation and cybernation, all form the context of the world in which our graduates will live out their days.

We send them forth with confidence in them and with faith in God who created this wonderful world as our temporary home away from home. As they journey through life we are confident that they will be borne on through all difficulties by their unwavering faith, their firm hope and their true love for God and man.

REV. EDWARD ANDERSON, C.S.V.
Vice-Principal

To be asked to say a few words of farewell to the class of 1966 is indeed for me an honor. It has been my privilege to teach all the boys of this class in religion and many of the girls in Latin. Your class has been an asset to our school and Alleman will miss you. May the friendships you have begun at Alleman deepen, may your school spirit and loyalty continue by your interest and devotion to Alleman as alumni. If Catholic education is to grow and prosper, it will need the support of its graduates.

Your education is not ending. In a rapidly changing world all the answers have not been given you. You must continue to grow in knowledge that you may shape the course of a changing world. And in this process may this well known prayer be your inspiration. "Lord give me the courage to change the things that should be changed, the patience to accept the things that cannot be changed, and the wisdom to know the difference."

And your greatest contribution to human progress and change can be accomplished if you keep in mind always that essential message of Christian education, the words of Christ: "By this will all men know that you are my disciple, if you have concern one for another." Your Catholic education has given a strong affirmative answer to the question: Am I my brother's keeper? This then can be your unique contribution to the world — the message of Christian love and concern for all of God's people.

HOMECOMING '65

Homecoming fever hit earlier than usual this year — October 1 and 2. The week preceeding homecoming was hectic with float preparations and nominations for candidates for king and queen.

As the weekend grew closer, float building hastened, excitement mounted.

The assembly on Friday officially kicked off the festive weekend. One high point was the coronation of Larry Mortier and Mary Southwood as king and queen. A pep rally followed as Allemanites chanted in thunderous unison for a victory in the game that night.

Determined Pioneer gridders took to the pigskin Friday night and heightened spirits with a decisive win over St. Mary's of Clinton.

The excitement of a parade was felt by all as hundreds lined the parade route to view the array of the many-colored cars and floats.

The final touch on a perfect weekend was added Saturday night as Allemanites danced to the music of Carroll Baker and his orchestra.

Strong Pioneer Squad Ends 6-2-1

The 1965 version of the Alleman football squad inaugurated the season with a 24-13 setback at the hands of the Rocks. Although the green and white outclassed their opponents in most statistics, their adversaries managed to lower the boom on long runs.

In the next four games, however, the Pioneers showed opposing teams a totally different game. Displaying a rugged defense, tops in the area, and a potent offensive punch — led by All-Quad City quarterback John Leahy, Alleman chalked up a century of points while limiting the opposition to a mere nineteen markers.

The highlight of the entire campaign came in one of these encounters with Moline. An inspired Pioneer team exhibiting superb defense and putting the bite on Maroon scoring attempts, foiled the public school's bid to record a victory by stunning them 6-0.

The Regis Royals caught up with the Pioneers in the next game and the former upset the Alleman squad at Cedar Rapids and became the only team this year to blank the Pioneer's 13-0. Alleman finished a successful season when they man-handled the Panthers and Bulldogs and tied a stubborn Walhert team.

GREATER BASKETBALL HATH NO MAN SEEN . . . than the hard-fought battle between the male contingent of the Alleman faculty and the varsity Lettermen. The faculty carried on their winning tradition by defeating the Lettermen 79 to 30.

"WOULD YOU BELIEVE 79 to 31?" Referee Walt Carlin gazes in amazement as the faculty nears final victory.

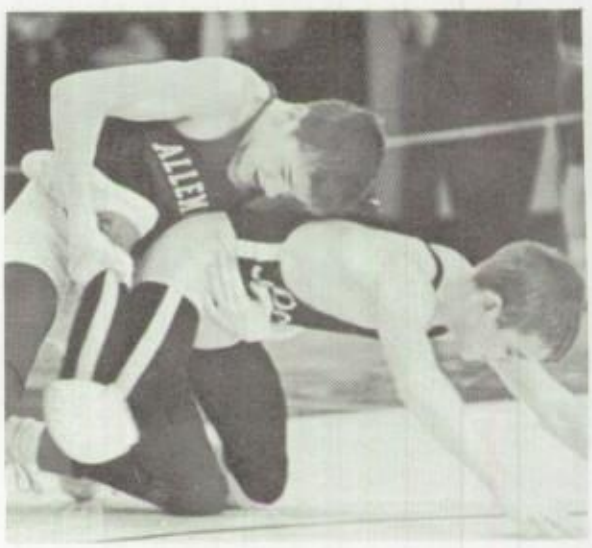
Mike Crowder refuses to budge, despite the best efforts of his opponent.



Jay Flaherty has the situation well in hand in this match.

Dan Meyers gets the better of his opponent.

VARSITY BASKETBALL '66

A potentially great team that got that certain incentive is a phrase that aptly describes this year's Pioneer squad. Perhaps the one thing that figured so much in the mediocre campaign was the fact that the Pioneers did not defeat a Quad-Cities foe. That, coupled with third quarter nightmares and cold shooting, would mean trouble for any coach.

This is not to say that Alleman did not enjoy any good nights. However, after looking very impressive in the second Bettendorf game and throughout the Pontiac Tournament and following games, the incentive seemed to die down. It arose again in Peru and Alleman seemed ready for the tournament grind in March, although the Pioneers were not destined to go to State.

This superlative group plays the loudest (trumpets, l. to r., Dave Sacco, John Coats, Fred Flores and Ramona Bustos), biggest (sousaphone, Bob Chinn) and smallest (piccolo, Therese O'Halloran) instruments in the band. Missing are Tom Kasenberg and Tim Moore.

In parting . . .

In terms of expansion to broader horizons and new frontiers, this year's Student Council has been one of the best in recent years. The keynote of our Student Council has been endeavoring to pursue the continual development of new ideas and the building of a sound foundation for future Student Councils at Alleman. The record gives testimony to the completion and fulfillment of this policy. The Student-Faculty Board, the Customs Book in the Library, the Student Council Workshop for incoming officers, and open assemblies are some of the new projects initiated this year. Now the torch has been passed; the best of luck to the leaders of the future.

Is that really Sue Staes on the trampoline?

Cordination-plus, that's what it took for Mississippi Mud in the Sophomore Assembly.

Moments To Remember

But, John, the Easter Egg hunt isn't until next week.

Would you believe they're holding their diplomas . . .gift-wrapped maybe?

Hey! What's that telephone pole doing in the picture of our winning Junior float?

Many Thanks

We would like to thank everyone involved with the yearbook for all the cooperation we have received. Without the unfailing help of our hard working staff, we realize the book would never have been completed. The understanding of our parents and teachers, especially Sr. Kevin, has made it possible for everyone to devote so much time to perfecting the '66 PIONEER.

We also wish to thank those students who although not on the staff, have contributed to the finished product. These include the entire student body and senior Journalism class who gathered advertisements, and Paul Sansale and John Leahy who donated their time and art work.
